

Where In the World Is Your Coyote ???

It is very simple...Victorville, CA. Region 665, home of the Coyote Classic every February, is starting a contest. As all you who attended our 12th annual tournament discovered we gave Maroon Coyote Classic shirts to every player and coach that came out to the desert this past February. Well, thanks to all of YOU it was a great success. So we Coyotes thought it would be great to spread the love and AYSO spirit.

Simply send us your photo of a registered volunteer or player that attended the 2008 Coyote Classic (yes, we need their name and ID # with region and team) that displays the Maroon shirt next to a city or country sign (or a well-known landmark) and email it to us for a chance to win some prizes. All entries must be post marked by September 1, 2008.

The player or volunteer that sends in a picture furthest from our mailing address (listed at www.ayso665.org) and registers in our 2009 Coyote Classic will receive a free registration for their ENTIRE TEAM to participate in the 2009 Coyote Classic, and we will waive the referee fee. We will also award discounts to the 2nd and 3rd place winners.

So don't hesitate to let us know where your Coyote has been this summer. New York, Germany, or maybe Spain?? Just send in your photos for a chance to win and a great deal for your team and recognition for your region.
