JR REF NEWS

All Junior Refs are invited to a Pizza Party at the Pizza Factory on Friday, Nov 5th at 6PM. The Pizza Factory is located on Main St in Hesperia. RSVP to Chris Begay at rra@ayso665.org or just show up on Friday. Thanks for your help this season. Job well done!

COACHES: Important Paperwork is due ASAP

U8—U19 Coaches
 Player Evaluation forms were in mailboxes last week. The whole concept of BALANCED TEAMS relies on the honest evaluation of individual players by the person with the best knowledge of the player's abilities and strengths. Namely, our coaches. PLEASE turn in the completed form at the Tent TODAY.

U10, U12 & U14 Coaches
 All Star Nomination forms also need to be turned in today. Don't deny a deserving player the chance to play on an All Star Team.

All Star Coach Applications Due
 If any U10—U14 coaches are interest in applying for an All Star Coach position, applications are due today. Turn in your application at the Tent by 3:00 pm today.

A "Thank You" to our Parents

Through rain, sleet, snow, or dark of night, our trustee parents always get the player delivered.

Thank you parents, for adjusting schedules, for all of the late dinners, for all of the gas and travel, for all of the volunteering, and for all of the time and care you put into getting kids to the park for practices and games.

It is through your great effort and sacrifice that our program continues strong. We recognize all you do and one day your children will look back on their years in AYSO with fond memories. It is because of you that this program succeeds.

So here's a "Whoop- Whoop" just for you. You are appreciated!

Looking Forward to Spring Season

Keep your eyes open for details about our new Spring Program. That's right, AYSO will be expanding our program by adding a Spring Season in March 2011. Remember to check our web page periodically for details so you don't miss sign ups. (www.ayso665.org)

U19 Girls Headed for Area Play offs!

Both of our Victorville girls U19 Division teams will be participating in Area 10D Playoffs. Our U19 girls were scheduled to compete each other for a position at play-offs, but due to Rosamond dropping from the competition, both teams won a chance at play. Congratulations and good-luck to both teams!

AYSO 665 Board Welcomes a New Member

Please join your Board as we welcome Michelle Hill as one of our Chief Division Coordinators. This is a liaison position for all of our staff and administrators. Communication is key in an organization this size and Michelle has risen to the challenge. Thank you Michelle for stepping forward.

Trick-or-Treat Tips for Parents

- Never allow children to Trick or Treat without adult supervision.
- Check all candies & treats before allowing kids to munch down.
- Don't take chances on homemade treats, unless you know first hand where they came from.
- Never allow your kids to eat unwrapped candies.
- Avoid poorly lit houses or houses with no lights on.
- Use a flashlight, or glow sticks and watch for cars when crossing streets.
- Have a safety talk with your children before leaving the house.

Have a safe Halloween!
